

Checklist 5. ... Kitchen Contract

Tick, when sure!

- Have you asked for the company's terms of sale prior to signing any contract ... to give you plenty of time to read and understand them?
- Have you read the contract, and understand every paragraph and every item?
- Are you clear about the dates your payments are required?
- Is there a retention figure, which you do not have to pay until the work is completed to your satisfaction?
- Will you be signing the contract in your own home or at the supplier's premises', and are you aware of the difference in doing so?
- Are all of the items and services you intend buying listed on the contract?
- Does the contract specify any guarantee for both the product and the installation works?
- Is the installation work part of your suppliers' contract, or is the suppliers' kitchen fitter "recommended only"?
